

7:05 - Meeting called to order, Laura

A. Senior Lead Officers both out.

B. Martin Cadillac Is Back - Seth

1. The Commercial Corridors CPIO District seeks to enhance "main street" shopping experience. Limits amount of auto businesses in area.
2. Tracy addressed principles/framework/context/issues raised during discussions
3. Thoughts/Suggestions were given for neighborhood beautification if we were to wave the CPIO
4. NU met with Martin Cadillac between meetings
5. Martin Cadillac has agreed to
 - a. Repave alley behind Claude Pepper
 - b. Claude Pepper parking lot resurfaced
 - c. Enhance landscaping in front of Claude Pepper
 - d. Replace barbed wire chain link fence in back of property
 - e. City estimate > than 250K for improvements
 - f. Has a 10 year lease with two 5 year options. Committed to the neighborhood.
6. Community addressed Martin Cadillac on various questions
7. Room voted - 50/50 Split
8. Will be addressed at Pico-Union Neighborhood Council 10/10, 7PM, Claude Pepper

C. Edible Landscapes Guest Speaker - Cerrulean Featherson

Edbl.net

1. Green Company - can email digital brochure
2. Grow Your Own Food - food security and exercise
3. Additional revenue for Seniors - there is a demand for local farmers
4. Support Farm to Table Movement
5. Helps home owners get organically certified
6. Organization is also a Co-Op and can help forage hard to reach fruits
7. Food For Thought - mobile impact farm

D. Liz Carlen - Herb Wesson's office

1. Sewer Update
 - a. Various street closures
 - b. If on Sterns & have smell issues please report
2. Traffic Signal on Fairfax / Sawyer - not funded
3. Bird Scooter Controversy
 - a. City should release info sheet soon
 - b. Don't have info at this time
 - c. Today if it's littering pkwy - there are #s on scooter, or call councilman

E. La Cienega & 18th Mall

1. Rumor - Target may be going into Toys R Us, in talks
2. Concerns about Farmer's Market - writing letter from Neighbors United

F. No November Meeting due to Veterans Day

G. Dec. Holiday Potluck 12/10 - Committee meeting 11/12, Laura's House

H. New Website up & Running. Pay Pal account set up now